AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

For the Cure of

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

Of all the numerous medicines extant, (and some of them valuable) for the cure of pulmonary complaints, nothing has ever been found which could compare in its effects with this Preparation. Others cure sometimes, but at all times and in all diseases of the lungs and the throat where medicine can give relief, this will do it. It is pleasant to take, and perfectly safe in accordance with the directions. We do not advertise the virtues of these pills that have tried, but those who have not, Families and the public generally, may be assured that in Cherry Pectoral, they will find a remedy which can be relied on implicitly, and which will relieve them from the dangerous consequences of allowing a cough or cold to remain neglected, ripen into fatal consumption.

The Distinguished Professor of the Massachusetts Institute of Arts and Sciences, in the preparation by the Boston Institute of Industry, in the year 1847, have, the Medals of the three great Institutes of Art and Science in this country, also the Diploma of the Ohio Institute at Cincinnati, have been given to the Cherry Pectoral, by their Governments in consideration of its extraordinary excellence and usefulness in curing affections of the Lungs and Throat.

Read the following remarks (selected) on the long experience of the eminent Physician of the Port and City of ST JOHNS, May 8, 1851.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—

Five years trial of your CHERRY PECTORAL in my practice, has proved what I assert from conviction, must be true, that it eradicates and cures the children's coughs to which we, in this section, are peculiarly liable.

I think its equal has not yet been discovered, nor do I know how a better remedy can be made for the distempers of the Throat and Lungs.

J. BURTON, M. D. F. R. S.

See what it has done on a wasted consumptive, apparently in the following cases just as they came before us:

Dr. Ayer—In the month of July last I was attacked by violent Bronchitis, in the vicinity of California, occasioned by San Francisco in hope of receiving benefit from a change of climate and diet. My Disease increased, but was followed by a severe cough—and in consequence, I daily started for bottle, but received no benefit from the use of it. Each continued to grow worse and worse, when I received Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which I purchased of a Druggist in this city, and after using it for a few weeks I was restored to health, and now enjoy as good health as ever I did.

WILLIAM W. SMITH.

Washington, Pa., April 10, 1848.

Dear Sir: Feeling that I have been spared from a premature grave, through your instrumentality by the blessing of God, I will take it as a privilege to express to you my gratitude.

A cough and the alarming symptoms of Consumption had reduced me to so low a state that anything like hope, even my physician, brought me to the use of your "Cherry Pectoral" seemed to afford immediate relief, and now a few weeks time has restored me to sound health. If it will do for others what it has for me, you are certainly one of the benefactors of mankind.

Sincerely wishing your blessing, I remain,

Very respectfully yours, &c.,

JOHN J. CLARKE, Rector of St. Peter's Church.

With such assurance and from such men, no stranger or citizen, be it disbelieved unless it be from its effects upon trial.

For whiteness and brilliancy it is unrivaled; it is free from all poisonous properties to persons and dangerous in other ingredients; will cover, equal weight, from 40 to 100 per cent more space than lead, and is therefore much cheaper in the end. As an inside paint it will not turn yellow even when exposed to the sulphurious gases of coal fires or the foul air of ships. Their White Zinc ground in varnish produces the purest and finest.

WHIG NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT,

WINFIELD SCOTT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

WILLIAM A. GRAHAM

OF NORTH CAROLINA.

FOR GOVERNOR,

William G. Crosby

OF BELFAST.

FOR CONGRESS

ISRAEL WASHBURN, JR.

☞ The Portland Argus is trying very hard to make it appear that the nomination of the gallant hero Gen. Scott, is not satisfactory to the whigs because there is some disappointment in Boston, and a preference expressed there for Mr. Webster. It is admitted that the nomination of Mr. Webster would have been more satisfactory to Boston than that of any other man. The delegates proper, and outsiders from Boston, went cheerfully into the Convention, and they worked heroically for their favorite. They omitted no occasion to advance his interests. They did all that men could do to secure for him an honorable nomination. They even felt that defeat with him as a candidate, would verynigh be an equivalent for a defeat; if defeat must come. Bostonians are an out spoken people, and they have not failed certainly in this instance, to give utterance to their disappointment. But the Argus people must be laboring under a very strong delusion if they suppose that the disappointment of Boston people is to lead them to throw the electoral vote of "Old Massachusetts" into the loco hopper, and thereby add additional weight to that party, the better to enable it to trample upon the great interests of the labor and business, the honor and progress of the country, which Bostonians have so much at heart.

The aid and comfort which the present course of Bostonians is giving to the loco party will soon, even if there were no patriotic motives to influence the Boston friends of Mr. Webster, cause them to change and give their earnest and ready support to the nomination of the hero Gen. Scott, the beloved of his country, and the chosen leader of his party, to bear their banner before this free people, and to be the honored Chief Magistrate of the United States. Massachusetts, and with the aid of Boston, too, will participate, and promote the glorious victory of the right. The Argus is just now fiddling upon a string which will soon be restrung in harmony with the whig music which is exciting attention over the whole land, and already in an enlivening chorus, throughout the great West. There Gen. Scott is known and honored, and confided in. There the people have met him face to face, and know the man, his patriotism, his skill, his sterling common sense, and his practical wisdom. They can truly estimate his real ability, and that is sufficient anywhere to secure him, the votes of the people who are not specially interested in the distribution of the spoils of office. If it were not for these spoils there would be no opposition to Gen. Scott in any quarter, but he would receive the unanimous vote of the people, and be borne with signal honors as upon the palms of their hands into the presidential chair.

It should be remembered that not every whig of Boston has participated in the coldness of Boston towards the nomination. We have met there very enthusiastic supporters of the nomination of Gen. Scott, while all about Boston—over the entire State of Massachusetts the nominations are cheerfully ratified and confirmed, and will be supported with alacrity and zeal. Indeed, we entertain most fully the opinion, from what we have personally observed in several of the States, from conversation with many members of the Convention, and from the reports which are constantly reaching us from all sections of the country, that the nomination of Gen. Scott is the most satisfactory which could have been made: that his life and public services are a better guaranty of his course, than any platform framed by the convention, and that he will be elected the next President of the United States, and that the people will be satisfied with his administration of the government.

The Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence is to be celebrated in this city, on Monday next, on a political party basis by the loco party, and they are straining themselves dreadfully to gather in here a large number from all the regions round about. The Whigs would do well to throw up a "Log Cabin," have a hasty plate of soup and enjoy themselves with their friends, talking over the signal services which their noble candidate and political leader has conferred upon the country, and thus catch a portion of the true ardor of patriotism which has so long animated his heart and strengthened his arm.

Hon. Samuel H. Blake is to deliver an oration at Dover, on the 3d, and Nathaniel Wilson, Esq., of Orono will deliver an oration at Exeter on the 5th.

A foolish countenance is the forerunner of foolish actions; you would be a man, speak what you think; employ your understanding, which is your own, clothe your mind with sentiments fit for you to say. Know in a matter, to whatsoever it would be good for the world to be taught, that up to it. Know much, and be modest; be resolute, but yield to counsel; act always on the conviction of the best.

Capt. Mossman Sanford.

Died on the 24th of June inst., at his residence 306 East Broadway, in the city of New York, Capt. Mossman Sanford, at the age of 63 years.

In the death of Capt. Sanford the business community have lost an active member, a man of integrity, influence and large experience. At the time of his death he was one of the largest owners in steam navigation on the Eastern waters, where his influence has long been favorably felt, in the increased facilities and comforts of travel, particularly between this city and Boston.

Capt. Sanford possessed a character for uprightness and integrity, and his reputation in the business community was highly honorable, as a reliable, consistent and successful business man. To the large number of persons in his employ he was kind and generous, and took special pleasure in promoting them according to their merit, and in offering encouragements for the most honorable progress. His friends were numerous, and found in all professions and callings, and who will mourn his loss with sincerest regret.

To his family this event must be sorely afflictive. In his home his affections were strong and his kindness uniform, and there especially his own happiness seemed the best promoted, according as he was able to secure the welfare of its members.

The announcement of the death of Captain Sanford was immediately noticed by the different steamers wearing their flags at half mast in token of their honorable regard for his memory.

The business of Capt. Sanford will doubtless be continued by his sons, and the lines of travel which he has so successfully established will remain unbroken.

☞ The prospect for fruits is most encouraging in this vicinity, particularly of choice plums. Indeed all the fruits appear to succeed admirably in the soil of this county, and the only regret is that attention had not been earlier given to the planting of fruit trees, and that thousands had not been planted instead of tens. The encouragement is great for farmers and others to increase their orchards all over the State of Maine, for the demand for fruit increases faster than the supply, and but few families, as yet, consume as much fruit as they should do for their comfort and health.

Therein every encouragement for the people of Maine to engage very largely in fruit raising and in improving all their advantages. In other States capitalists and the people generally, are interested in giving encouragement and a helping hand to all branches of business, and all mechanical pursuits, and every variety of manufactures which promise to succeed and which will serve to bring in population and business, and help forward the general enterprise of the people. There are resources and energy and skill and industry and power enough in Maine to make her a great and prosperous and happy State, if they were rightly directed.

Mainly ought to husband her resources and to labor with zeal for her up-building. Her agriculture is too little thought of and too much neglected, whereas it should be her pride to carry it forward to the highest perfection, and by means of it to increase, very largely, the manufacturing interest within her borders.

☞ The Boston Courier is trying to outdo the Boston Liberator in the style of its language and the coldness of its imagery in expressing its disappointment on account of its favorite candidate for the Presidency not receiving the nomination of the National Whig Convention. It is a great effort on the part of the Courier, and we think it is likely to succeed. We like to see the Courier descend with so much rapidity because we think it will thereby be more likely to see its evils, and the sooner forsake them, than if greater moderation marked its course. It would have been a saving of time for the Courier people to have gone to Baltimore and controlled the action of the Convention than to attempt now a reversion of the popular judgment.

☞ The Whigs of Boston are to hold a ratification meeting on this evening, at Faneuil Hall. We trust that the distinguished speakers who are to address the meeting will counsel a wiser course than many of the whigs of that city have pursued since the Baltimore Convention. Boston ought to-night to come in cheerfully to the support of "Old Chirutuck," and henceforth work with a zeal and force worthy of the imitation of all.

☞ The Rev. Dr. Wainright of New York, has arrived in London as the deputy of the House of Bishops in the United States, and a special meeting for his reception has been held by the Society for the propagation of the Gospel. He made an address, and was responded to by the Bishop of London. The kindest feeling was expressed towards the American Protestant Episcopal Church.

The Family of Kossuth. The London News, in speaking of Kossuth's family, now on their way to this country, says that the venerable mother of the late Governor of Hungary is accompanied by her two daughters, their husbands, and their nine children. The mother of Kossuth is of small stature, and about 70 years of age—she appears to enjoy good health. The two sisters, on the contrary, are tall, and how of them appears to be 5 feet inches. It is known that these refugees were the subjects of a harassing persecution, which the Government abandoned on condition that they should leave the Continent.

☞ Mr. A. B. Dumon is now engaged in teaching the art of Penmanship, of which he is a most thorough master, in the best schools of Boston. He has recently had a series of his fine copies beautifully and accurately engraved for the use of schools and he can obtain the entire system, which will be in about two months. The teachers of our city High Schools, select and grammar schools, can obtain specimens of the engraved copies by calling at our office. Mr. Dumon having supplied us for their accommodation.

Appearing.—There is a sermon in that word. A sermon, too, full of right doctrine. It preaches straight to the head and pocket. The man who makes it his principle and watch word is on the straightroad to honor and profit.

☞ The Wisconsin, Iowa Gazette, says that many farmers in that region have been compelled to replant whole fields of corn, in consequence of unfavorable weather, which caused the corn first planted to rot in the ground.

☞ The Catholic priests in Ireland are preaching to the people against the use of tea and coffee. In America, every argument is said to patronize the South, is, in direct opposition to their own country.

Gen. Winfield Scott.

The author of the life of Gen. Scott, thus remarks concerning his ability as a statesman, and which we think cannot but be heartily responded to by all who have studied the history of the man or have listened to his words of wisdom in his interesting and able conversations:

If there be those who are inclined to regard General Scott simply as a great and successful soldier, we think a perusal of these pages will dispel all such unjust impressions. So to consider him, is to take a very limited and imperfect view of his life, actions and public services. Educated to the law, residing for more than a quarter of a century at the metropolis of the Union, in the habit of daily intercourse with the eminent statesmen of the country, and frequently a partner and counsellor in their deliberations, he has enjoyed peculiar advantages for mastering the art of American statesmanship, and familiarizing himself with all the workings of our admirable system of government. The glare of his military reputation has, to the superficial observer, thrown into the shade many of his most noble and valuable traits of character, and too often turned public attention from the many proofs which his career affords to his masculine intellect and comprehensive understanding. In beholding the great commander, many have omitted to observe the evidences of the great man. But no one who has carefully examined Gen. Scott's history will fail to recognize the most distinguished claim to personal distinction, independently of his military talents, or deny to him the possession of mental endowments of the very first order. In exactness of mind, in breadth and clearness of intellectual vision, in accuracy and celerity of memory, in knowledge of men, and unerring soundness of judgment, Gen. Scott has no superior among our public men. He has, on numerous public occasions of importance, given the most signal and convincing proofs of pre-eminent abilities and superior qualifications for the conduct of civil affairs. In his settlement of the North Eastern Boundary difficulties, in his management and capture of the border troubles on the Canada frontier, in his judicious treatment of South Carolina affairs when nullification was threatening and above all, in his masterly conduct in the discharge of his arduous and perplexing duties in the removal of the Cherokees, he displayed administrative abilities of the highest character, and manifested transcendent qualifications for the management of great and delicate national concerns. His entire conduct on all of these embarrassing exigencies was marked by sound sense, an unfailing discretion, and consummate wisdom.

Happy will it be for our country, if its candidates for the Presidency shall always be able to point to so illustrious a record of deeds that attest wise statesmanship, as the civil career of General Scott affords. The lives of but few of our public men are embellished with so many tokens and evidences of their capacity to treat great national questions with skill and judgement, as adorn the civil experience of Winfield Scott. His depth, his capacity, therefore, and eminent fitness for any station in the government, however exalted, as to confess ignorance of the man and his history; or to wilfully blind to the distinguishing characteristics of one whose celebrity is world-wide, who has not only shown himself to be a commander of comprehensive capacity and consummate genius as a soldier, without fear and without reproach, but a civilian, conciliatory, energetic, and wise; a man, pure, noble, generous, and humane.

Gen. Scott in Private Life.—The following extract from a private letter is published in the New York Tribune. It is, judging from all we have been able to learn, a faithful picture of Gen. Scott in the private walks of life:

In his personal intercourse, he is the most easy and agreeable man in the world. He makes no distinction of persons—Senators, Farmers Generals, children and all fare alike at his hands. The moment you hear his voice and catch the kind and gentle expression of his grey eye, you dismiss every thought of embarrassment and enter at once into conversation, as with an old and familiar friend. Into a crowd of ten thousand men, every eye would turn instinctively to him as to many magnetic needles to the pole. Of all American Generals, living or dead, he is undoubtedly the greatest—while those who know him believe in their hearts that in all the qualities of a great, generous and good man he is second to no other. He is entirely national in all his views and rely far above that bitterness of party feeling which so generally characterizes those who are only statesmen. He is not, and never has been, proscriptive, as thousands of brave Democrats who have shared with him the rude comforts of the camp and the dangers and sufferings of the battle field will testify."

☞ The St. Paul's (Minnesota) Pioneer says: We learn that on Tuesday last, a large quantity of liquors were landed on our levee in St. Paul's, by a Chicago Railroad car, and offered for sale here, were seized by virtue of our new liquor law. The man who will thus openly defy the public position, and the law of a whole territory, and himself a non-resident, attempt to thrust a cargo of rot-gut into Minnesota, in defiance of the law should be dealt without mercy.

☞ Letters received in Warren, R. I., from the Sandwich Islands, dated in April last, say that the whalers there are having a bad time, particularly with their crews. Some ships have lost half their crews by desertion, others have men in irons, and two ships have been set on fire, which will, as the writer adds, "be the means of raising a large portion of the voyages in this ocean."

☞ The family circle is without doubt the most important sphere in society. Happy homes, and happy homes, alone can produce a really good state of society.

☞ A new Post Office has been established at West Corinna and Isaiah Lincoln, Esq., appointed Postmaster.

Thursday, June 27.

This afternoon, at 1½ o'clock, a fire broke out in the Steam Iron Mill of the Albany Iron Works in this city, which destroyed a large portion of those extensive works, and some 20 dwelling houses occupied chiefly by the operatives in the Factory. The full amount of loss has not yet been accurately ascertained, but it will probably reach $150,000 at least.

250 hands are thrown out of employment.

Boston June 28.

On Saturday evening, Mr. Hencken, Conductor of the freight train on the Norfolk County Railroad, when almost distance his side of Blackstone, was knocked from the platform by coming in contact with a bridge, and immediately killed.

Confession of an Ex-Liquor Dealer. One evening (he remarked) a man arrived from the country with four barrels of whiskey, which he (the dealer) purchased of him at the usual rate—which was somewhere about thirty cents per gallon; the countryman then wished to purchase a hogshead of Jamaica rum to take home with him. The dealer informed him that he had none on hand, but was expecting some every hour, and if he would wait until the next day, he would be enabled to supply him with a superior article; to which the countryman consented. The dealer then had the whiskey rolled into the cellar, and transferred twice as old rum hogshead, and the following day sold it for Jamaica spirits to the very man of whom he purchased it—at an advance of 75 cents per gallon.—New York Sun.

A young gentleman on the other day asked a young lady upon the benefits of the "marriage tie in general?" "Not knowing, (she replied) from the ugly look you cast I would not ask your hand together I could see your face a single quarter."

CONGRESS.

Washington, June 25.

Senate.—The Chair presented a report from the Secretary of the Navy, answering a resolution calling for the amounts paid for printing and binding.

On motion the Senate went into executive session for a short time.

In about fifteen minutes the doors were re-opened, and the private calendar was taken up. Some fifty adverse reports were taken up and concurred in.

A motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill for the relief of Mark and Richard Beale of Arkansas was ordered to a third reading, was debated till after 2 o'clock, and then agreed to. The bill was then postponed.

The Chair laid before the Senate a message from the President of the United States transmitting, in compliance with a resolution of the Senate, copies of a correspondence between the State Department and the American Charge at Vienna, relative to the imprisonment of C. L. Brace by the Austrian authorities. The correspondence is voluminous. We select the following:

Prince Schwarzenberg to Mr. McCurdy.

Vienna, June 13, 1851.

The undersigned, resident member of Foreign Affairs, and of the Imperial Household, has had the honor to receive the letters of the Hon. J. C. McCurdy, Charge d'Affaires of the United States of North America, in which he interposes for the release of the Reverend C. L. Brace, a citizen of the United States, and confined by the Imperial authorities at Gratz Werdoin. The undersigned did not fail to communicate to the Hon. Mr. McCurdy, that on the receipt of the first application of the United States Consul, orders had been given to the authorities to report on the subject mentioned by Mons. McCurdy, and to terminate the proceedings with all possible speed. The undersigned cannot in the mean time conceal from the Hon. Mr. McCurdy, that in consequence of communications received from the military commandant in Hungary, showing that Mr. Brace, a citizen of the United States, had been the bearer of papers from Hungarian fugitives, belonging to the most dangerous and prominent revolutionists, addressed to resident individuals very much suspected, as well as several copies of the most inflamatory and treasonable publications, for which he had been placed in confinement, as a proceeding which, especially during a siege, is most strictly forbidden by law; that in consequence of such conduct, therefore, the arrest of Mr. Brace has been deemed the more fully justifiable, as in his extensive journey through Hungary he had thought proper to travel by very indirect and the most unfrequented roads in quest of the individuals who were known for their hostility to the Government—going thus by such proceedings to the support that Mr. Brace participated in their political intrigues.

The undersigned will avail himself of the earliest opportunity to communicate to the Hon. Mr. McCurdy the progress of the judicial investigation, which will in every respect be conducted in conformity with the requirements of existing laws, and the result thereof on the occasion to renew, &c. &c.

(Signed,) F. SCHWAZENBERG.

Mr. McCurdy, in a letter to Prince Schwarzenberg, dated June 10, 1851, says:

"The undersigned has been informed, from another source, that Mr. Bruce had with him but one objectionable letter, and that only a note of introduction, containing about three lines, given long since, and not considered by him of sufficient consequence to be delivered, and but one pamphlet, an essay on the Hungarian questions, which was kept for his own private use, as a subject of historical importance."

Mr. McCurdy further states that Mr. Brace's unusual route of travel was for the purpose of obtaining information of the customs, manners and habits of the people, &c.

The communication was referred and ordered to be printed.

A motion to go into executive session failed for want of a quorum, and the Senate adjourned till Monday.

House.—Mr. Reed, the newly elected member from Maine, in the place of Charles Andrews, deceased, appeared and after being duly qualified took his seat.

The House then resumed the considerations of Mr. Bennett's Land Bill. The motion for a recommital was lost by yeas 84—nays 103.

Mr. Bissell, under the conviction that full consideration had not been given to the bill, moved to table it. Decided negatively—yeas 79, nays 103.

The question recurred on the passage of the bill, when Mr. Savage moved to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to recommit the bill to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Stephens of Georgia, moved to lay that motion on the table. Decided affirmatively—yeas 106, nays 72. The morning hour then expired.

Mr. Stevens of Georgia, inquired whether this would not be unfinished business for to-morrow morning.

The Speaker replied it would!

Mr. Stevens expressed the hope that the friends of the measure would all be in their places to-morrow morning.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the contested election case from the 14th Congressional district of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Fuller of Pa. moved that the contestant, H. B. Wright, be admitted to a seat within the bar, and have the privilege of being heard. Agreed to.

Mr. Fuller then spoke in vindication of his right, and said that if he should claim a seat to which he was not entitled, he would deserve the derision and scorn of all honorable men.

Mr. Wright, the contestant, replied, charging fraud by the Whigs in order to defeat him in that election. The subject was not concluded when the House adjourned.

Hymn for Fourth of July

Hail the day that gave arise,
Streaming thro' the azure skies,
Freedom's banner, sparkling bright
In the triumph of the fight.

While it's rays in our parties shine,
Burning, with heroic fire,
To restore the wrongs they bore,
And their sacred rights restore.

Hail the day, whose annual sun
Shines to spread the blessings won,
And which calls us here to raise
Freedom's song of joy and praise.

Tis the day of all the year,
That should most our spirits cheer—
Tis the day, we love to see,
Freedom's day of jubilee.

Tis the proudest day of earth,
Hallow'd by a nation's birth,
Noble in its history,
And in manhood great and free.

Never shall its fame decline,
Or its glory cease to shine,
As it rose in floods of light,
So its course shall still be bright.

Swell with heart and voice the strain
As we sing, we will maintain,
What our fathers strove to win,
Faithful sons of Liberty.

Some Joke.—It is currently reported that when a Committee of Democrats at Washington, waited on Commodore Stockton, and invited him to address a meeting to "ratify" the nomination of Gen. Pierce, he responded: "I am a poor speaker, but I will attend, and if you will get a good man to follow me, I will make a speech that will ratify the nomination of Gen. Pierce, for a thousand years!"

Gen. Scott in Battle.—The following extract from a private letter is published in the New York Tribune. It is, judging from all we have been able to learn, a faithful picture of Gen. Scott in the private walks of life:

☞ The following paragraph is clipped from the Montreal Herald of Tuesday:

We understand, from Messrs Bill, Scott & Co., the American forwarders at Boston, that before the late severe storms will not be charged by the American government, on goods or produce passing through the United States in bond, or transmit, to or from Canada. Also, that the Cunard steamers have reduced their rate of freight from Liverpool to Boston only one pound, per ton—the rate now being three pounds sterling per ton. These reductions will offer still greater inducements to Canadian importers via Boston.

25,000 Sold per Year!

The Unsurpassed and Unsurpassable

Bay State Stove,

OF SIX SIZES, of heavy and smooth castings—prices from $15 to $50—celebrated for its whole cooking apparatus, carrying off the smoke in broiling, and not to be exceeded in baking, frying, boiling, &c., &c., or in durability and economy—may be had, as heretofore, at the well known and long established

Stove, Furnace and Range DEPOT,

Nos. 80 & 82 MAIN STREET, and 2 and 4 WALL STREET, OF

N. JOHNSON,

Who is SOLE Agent, and always has been, for this market, for the sale of the celebrated Stove above named, of which 25,000 were sold the past year, and of which some 30,000 will not be more than sufficient to supply the demand the present year.

The BAY STATE is sold and warranted as usual. Returned after an unsatisfactory trial of 30 days, the price paid will be refunded, together with interest and cost of returning.

Persons purchasing the BAY STATE, and desiring repairs, are not subjected to the trouble of sending to Boston, Portland, or New York for castings, nor to wait for them, AS I HAVE THEM ON HAND!!!

A CHALLENGE OF $50

Is proposed, that 50 Stoves of six sizes, and any other pattern than the BAY STATE, for which I am sole Agent, cannot be produced, which will compare with the 50 I now have on hand, in thickness and smoothness of Castings, ease of facility and economy of broiling, baking, boiling, or otherwise cooking requisite.

The public are especially requested not to mistake a Stove called the "IMPROVED BAY STATE," which is cheaper, and of a lighter article of thinner and less durable castings, and which is sometimes advertised without the word "Improved," as a prefix, for the original and genuine BAY STATE, which has been so generally and thoroughly tested and admired.

All other kinds of STOVES constantly on hand, as above, which will be sold at reduced prices.

THE best Cook Stove ever introduced to this or any other people.

Having secured the sole agency of this very desirable Stove, I take great pleasure in offering it to my customers and the public. Eastes & Whittier, who know, and have appreciated the wants of this enlightened people. Its conveniences for Boiling, Broiling, Frying, &c., are not surpassed, and its extensive and beautiful Oven for Baking and Roasting, will at once recommend itself to the Ladies. One very important feature is, it has very stout and smooth castings, and being manufactured in this city, can at all times be repaired, if ever necessary, at a trifling expense without subjecting can to wait for castings to be ordered from New York, Rhode Island, or elsewhere. Every Stove is warranted one year, and one not giving entire satisfaction may be returned and the money will be refunded after 30 days trial.

THE ROAD TO HEALTH
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND BAD DIGESTION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. W. Kirkus, Chemist, 7, Prescot Street, Liverpool, dated 5th June, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—Your Pills and Ointment have stood the highest on our sale list of Proprietary Medicines for many years. At customer, to whom I can refer for many enquiries, desires me to let you know the particulars of her case. She had been troubled for years with a disordered liver, and bad digestion. On the last occasion, however, the virulence of the attack was so alarming, and the inflammation set in so severely, that doctors were called and he not being able to bear up under it, finally she was induced to try your Pills, and she assures me that after the first and each succeeding purge, she had perceptible relief, continued to take them, and although she was confined to her bed, she has now left it the enjoyment of perfect health. I could have sent you many more cases but the above, from the severity of the attack, and the speedy cure I think, speaks much in favor of your valuable Pills.

(Signed) R. W. KIRKUS.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF RHEUMATIC FEVER, IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the 25th March, 1852.

Margaret M Cann, aged nineteen years of age resided at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months, which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, by them her case was considered hopeless—a friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's Pills, which she commenced to do, and in a short time had experienced the effects of their perfect cure.

CURE OF A PAIN AND TIGHTNESS IN THE CHEST AND STOMACH OF 15 YEARS STANDING.

From Messrs Thom & Son, Proprietors of the Leven Advertiser, who can vouch for the following statement—dated 20th, 1851.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I desire to bear testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Pills. For some years I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach which was also accompanied with a short breath that prevented me from following my business. I am 58 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, these Pills have so restored me, that I can devote that attention to my business which I could not do before. (Signed)

They also have the advantage of personally explaining their inventions and if dissatisfied in respect to them, matters in general of paramount importance are under a certain circumstances amended. The experience of sixteen years practice, an extensive collection of rare works, designs, &c on mechanical subjects, the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford inventors desirous of procuring Patents, assistance and information which in other respects might be difficult of attainment

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent, faithful and worthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. Bounty on Wolves.

If you'd your Wolves most surely kill,
And Foxes too, why Hunter's call,
Its nothing but to give the Pill,
The victim drops, then Hunters sell.

AFTER trying for several years to obtain a more deadly poison for Wolves and Foxes than any horse-radish used, I have now succeeded in getting an article that is sure and almost instantaneous in its deadly effects, giving its victim no time to move from the Natal spot where it was tempted by that Rubber to take its last mouthful—There is no other like it that I have seen or been able to find.
